Quoting Deut 24:4 – It is an abomination for a Jewish divorced woman who has remarried to go back to her 1st husband. This is a "who's your daddy" syndrome, and it curses the land <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ♦ God's main directive was to preserve the lineage of His people till the coming of Christ ♦ Yet God was still willing to show His love by fully accepting His adulterous bride • v3. But God's people refused to be ashamed of their sins, so "showers have been withheld" – economic failure on a national scale • vv13-14. "Only Repent"... But even if a few repent, God can give them godly leaders/shepherds to help turn a nation around • vv16-. In a future day the people will not be concerned about not having the ARK, because God will be directly and visibly in their midst, and Judah and Israel will be restored • vv19-21. God's remedy if no repentance → "I will bring disaster on you because you would not listen to my word, and it will be cruel and merciless"

CONCLUSION/APPLICATIONS

- We need to ask 'do we see ourselves or our nation in Israel's situation?' If, so, then how do we fix it? ...REPENT!

NEXT WEEK: Jeremiah 7-10. What is left for God to do to get Israel to repent and follow after things He delights in, such things as Love, Truth, Justice, & Righteousness? And they refuse to turn from their evil ways!
