INTRODUCTION

- War is inevitable in a fallen world; Cities can be leveled, innocent civilians often die, and war orphans face a bleak future.
- However, God warns nations about endorsing war atrocities such as cruelty and brutality to captives, rampant injustice and immorality, national slavery, and destruction of family structure.
- America paid a hefty price in its Civil War for sanctioning and profiting from slavery in its early years of existence. Repercussions are still being felt generations later.
- Yet, America reaped prosperity for several post WW-II generations following its noble efforts to fight tyranny on a global scale.
- In this lesson Amos shows that war atrocities invoke God-inflicted consequences on a national scale, which are still applicable today.
- Amos was from the southern kingdom of Judah, but he prophesied to the northern kingdom of Israel just prior to Hosea’s ministry.

<td>v2. Amos prophesied 2 yrs before a major earthquake\nArcheologists have found evidence of a major earthquake dated to 760 B.C., which lines up with Amos\nvv3-5. Damascus War Atrocities – They were brutal to the people of Gilead\nTheir punishment: Destruction by another army\nvv6-8. Gaza War Atrocities – They deported an entire population to another country\nTheir punishment: They will cease to exist\nvv9-10. Tyre War Atrocities - They sold an entire population to another country\nTheir punishment: Fire will destroy their defenses\nvv11-12. Edom War Atrocities – They were unmerciful, uncompromising and unre relenting\nTheir punishment: Fire will destroy their major cities\nvv13-15. Ammon War Atrocities – They ripped open pregnant women\nTheir punishment: They will be conquered and exiled</td>

Prepare to Meet Thy God

- vv6-12. God brought national catastrophes to entice His people to repent from their sins and return to Him\n- Empty store shelves in the cities ……….. v6\n- Drought conditions in certain parts of the country ….. v7\n- Rain/Flooding in other parts of the country ……….. v7-8\n- Heat waves and crop devastations by insects ……….. v9\n- Pandemics, pollution and wars ……….. v10\n- v13. But God is still on His Throne

CONCLUSION/APPLICATIONS

- America’s military, with rare exceptions, have been exemplary when it comes to showing mercy on the battlefield and in post-war rebuilding efforts for war-torn nations from Panama to Vietnam.
- May God bless America, Israel and other nations who take steps to prevent war atrocities, with future peace and prosperity.
- Yet, may we as a nation consider the floods, fires, earthquakes, heat waves, crop failures, wars, and, yes, 40+ school shootings in the past 20 years as God’s way to wake us up from our slide into immorality and materialism, and repent before things get worse.
- Note: The only things we have not endured yet in our generation are a major pandemic and a major invasion and conquest.

NEXT WEEK: Genesis 1; Exodus 1; Psalms 139; Mark 10.

Throughout history only Jewish and Christian believers have consistently and zealously fought to rescue the weak from destruction while others have callously sought their demise for profit or convenience. What more can we do to save the unborn, the handicapped, the elderly and those caught up in human trafficking from an early death?
