INTRODUCTION

- Ezekiel's God-given task to hammer the Jews hard with God's pending judgment on Jerusalem was not politically correct. He talked of the Jews being stripped naked by their captors, of babies being bashed against stone, of Jews eating their young ones to survive, and having to use human dung to cook their food
 - ♦ Gill's Commentary on Ezekiel: "The visions Ezekiel saw are very abstruse and difficult of interpretation, especially the vision of the living creatures and wheels; wherefore the Jews forbade the reading of it, as well as the end of this prophecy, until persons were thirty years of age."
 - ♦ Matthew Henry Commentary: "If we may give credit to the tradition of the Jews, Ezekiel was put to death by the captives in Babylon, for his faithfulness and boldness in reproving them; it is stated that they dragged him upon the stones till his brains were dashed out. An Arabic historian says that he was put to death and was buried in the sepulcher of Shem, the son of Noah."
- Our study this week doesn't help Ezekiel's appeal to the people as he pronounces more dire consequences for God's chosen ones

11:1-13	Evil Rulers to be Judged <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • vv5. God knows our thoughts, & we are accountable for them • vv17-19. Better days are coming when Israel will be rounded up and given a clean heart and a new spirit, but not now...
12:1-28	Ezekiel Prepares for Exile <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • v2. These people have eyes to see, but they are blind; and they have ears to hear but they are deaf Mark 8:18 - and they are willfully blind and deaf to spiritual truths • vv2-15. Another object lesson – Dig through the wall. You can run from trouble, but you will be caught & scattered – THEN YOU WILL KNOW THAT I AM THE LORD • v16. BUT God will spare a few from the sword, famine, and plagues – THEN YOU WILL KNOW THAT I AM THE LORD • vv23-28. Better days are coming, but not now...
13:1-23	False Prophets Condemned <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In a monarchy, the people are only as good as the leaders; and in a democratic society (such as the USA), the leaders are only as good as the people who vote them in • vv6-10. And God holds them responsible for misleading the people with such lies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ♦ Where did they get such lying dreams and visions? It was either of themselves or of Satan Zech 10:2; Col 2:18 • v19. It is possible to kill those who should not die (e.g., drunk driving) and save others who should not live (e.g., abolish of the death penalty), yet God is still sovereign over all things • vv20-23. Because idolatry is a heart disease • v11. The purpose of God's discipline is to keep His people from straying away and defiling themselves • vv12-20. BUT, there comes a time of destruction when God only saves the cream of the crop (Noah, Daniel, and Job). Even their prayers wouldn't be able to save their own kids • vv21-23. CONCLUSION/APPLICATIONS

- In our materialistic culture, we must watch out ourselves for covetousness, for God puts it in the same category as idolatry, immorality, & blasphemy: (Ex 18:21; Ps 119:36; Pr 21:26; Ecc 5:10-12; Jer 8:10; Mr 7:20-23; Lk 12:15; Rom 1:29; Col 3:5; Eph 5:3-5; 1 Cor 6:10; 1 Tim 6:10; Heb 13:5)

NEXT WEEK: Ezekiel 15-19. God's grace comes on the scene.

Ezekiel 8:1-18	The Vision of Abominations in Jerusalem <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • vv1-4. Ezekiel is transported in the Spirit from Babylon to Jerusalem to observe in real time what is happening <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ♦ v4. Even though the Jews were performing abominable practices in God' temple, the glory of God was still there • vv5-10. "Do you see what they are doing?" – An idol was set up, and numerous idolatrous paintings adorned the temple walls • vv11-12. The older generation (Elders) should have set an example of holiness for the younger generation instead of pointing them away from the one true God • vv13-17. Women weep/worship in a forbidden place in the temple over another idol; & men bow down toward the sun • v18. Result: God will not have any pity, nor will He spare
Where is God's Tolerance?	If we are commanded to love our enemies; to pray for those who wrong us; and to be merciful, kind, and forgiving as God is to us – why isn't God more tolerant of people who do stupid things, even if it is in His temple? Why be so merciless to His people? We have to factor in more data. This passage just summarizes some of the wickedness Ezekiel sees. God has been warning His people for more than 250 years, and they have progressed from bad to worse. We have to recognize that God's day of salvation has a limit when He will no longer deliver based on continuous, progressively worse, and non-repentant bad behavior Judges 10:13; Hos 1:6; Zech 11:6
9:1-11	The Vision of Slaughter <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • v1. God calls for the angelic executioners of the city • vv4-8. God had a special messenger to mark the good ones on the foreheads. All others were to be slain – young and old, men, women, and children – show no pity and do not spare! • vv9-11. We see a little more of Jewish wickedness – Their sin is very, very great; the innocent are slain (child sacrifice), & sexual perversion is rampant (homosexuality and bestiality)
10:1-22	The Vision of God's Glory Departing from the Temple <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • v2. We find out that the 4 living beings are Cherubims
