Passage	Comments
Jeremiah 34:1-22	The Jews Worshipped God with Their Lips... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To obtain God's favor the Jews who owned Hebrew slaves set them free – but only for a short time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> By law, the Jews could own Hebrew slaves, but only for 6 years Exodus 21:2 v16. When the Jews reneged on their covenant and enslaved their poor brothers again, God took it as polluting His name vv17-22. Punishment would be harsh enslavement of the slave owners and destruction of Jerusalem Sad to say, many obey God only if and when it is convenient to do so, or they are forced to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> "...Because of the greatness of Your power Your enemies give feigned obedience to You" Ps 66:3 It is hard to even get Christians to obey the speed limit – the good laws of the land
35:1-19	Rechabites Will Always Stand Before God <ul style="list-style-type: none"> vv1-2, 6. God tested the Rechabites by asking them to drink wine – but they refused since it would be in violation of their dad's orders to avoid alcoholic drinks vv18-19. God's promise to the faithful Rechabites – They would always have a man standing before Him. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What would this look like? Can we identify any Rechabites today? Only God knows for sure... This was a challenge to the Jews to obey God as the Rechabites obeyed their earthly father 2 Kings 10:15-17. When King Jehu of the northern kingdom of Israel, approximately 220 years earlier, picked up Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, to ride in his chariot with him as a witness to Jehu's destruction of all that belonged to King Ahab, it gave credibility of his kingship having such a conservative individual onboard <ul style="list-style-type: none"> So, being a teetotaler has its distinct advantages <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Rulers recognize the value of sobriety Society & God's Church need sober leadership
Other Long-Term Promises	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> David will always have a man on his throne ... Jer 33:17 Levites will always be offering burnt offerings . Jer 33:18 Sons of Zadok will always be before God Ezek 44:15

Romans 14:21 It is good not to eat meat or to drink wine, or to do anything by which your brother stumbles.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If our eating and drinking causes others to avoid Christ, then we should curtail it

CONCLUSION/APPLICATIONS

- There are benefits to living a disciplined life like the Rechabites
- For us teetotalers, we can wait for God's special feast to be held where "the best of meats and the finest of wines" will be available to all. Yes, besides wine, this passage also seems to allude to bacon, ham, and sausage being in Heaven as well. God is good! Is 25:6

NEXT WEEK: Jeremiah 36-39. If someone throws you under the bus or tosses you into a well, can you be content & still glorify God?
