INTRODUCTION

- The crux of our faith – the Resurrection, is only addressed in 1 chapter each in Matt, Mark & Luke. John covers it in 2 chapters
- Matthew’s account constitutes less than 5% of his Gospel; Mark gave 6% of his story to the resurrection; Luke 4%; and John 9%.
- If the Resurrection of Christ is the cornerstone of our faith why so few details provided in the Gospels?
- Does having more information, more facts, really make it easier to believe in something?
- Why is it difficult to change our beliefs? Wrong facts? Not enough information? Fear of the unknown? Pride? Life-long perceptions?

Passage	Comments
John 20:1-4	Everybody is Running to and from the Tomb <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • v1. Mary came to the tomb while it was still dark. Do you think she was up all night? Her courage was awesome, considering she would probably be finding Roman soldiers guarding the tomb – at night & alone • v2. After Mary Magdelene saw the stone moved away, and no guards, she RAN to get Peter and John • vv3-4. Peter & John RAN to the tomb to check it out • Do you think they were frantic, nervous, perplexed, scared, doubting, all of the above? • It was a good thing there were no TV cameras, cell phones, computers, radios, social media, and the internet around at that time. The resurrection story would’ve truly been twisted and distorted beyond imagination and recognition. God thinks of everything!
20:5-9	Who’s Afraid of the Unknown? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • v5. John, “the other disciple,” hesitated going into the tomb for some unknown reason, possibly a little afraid and wanted to wait for backup • v6. Peter, sometimes a bull in a china shop, catches up to John and marches in to check it out • Is it OK to be like Peter – bold and reckless; or like John, overly cautious? • vv8-9. John saw & believed, but v9 says they did not understand the Scripture that Christ must rise again from the dead. What John believed, then, was Mary’s report of the Lord’s body being gone • But why were the Disciples blind to the Scripture, especially when Jesus plainly told them numerous times that He must undergo suffering and death, and He would rise again after three days? • Aren’t we the same way when people tell us things that are beyond our comprehension at first (like calculus) until we get to a point when it sinks in and we finally GET IT! It just takes time • Thank God for His patience with all of us

Stumbling Blocks to the Truth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • More often than not, our assumptions and biases, which form our perceptions of what is true, are the old wineskins (Matthew 9:17), or the strongholds and fortresses which have to be demolished and rebuilt before we change our beliefs 2Corinthians 10:4 • Jesus followed a timely principle to get His disciples to see the Truth: “Gently instruct those who don’t see the truth. Perhaps God will change their hearts, and they will eventually get it.” (Rod’s version) 2Timothy 2:25
20:11-18	Mary to the Rescue Again <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why would Jesus make His first appearance from the grave to a woman with a shady past? • To Mary’s credit, she watched her Lord suffer on the cross while most the disciples went & hid 19:25 • v15. Jesus asked Mary two questions beginning with Why & Who. But they didn’t jar Mary out of her despair • v16. But when Jesus got personal and said her name, it registered and she popped up with a new attitude • v17. “Stop clinging to me” – Mat 28:9 records women holding Jesus by the feet, and that was OK. Later Jesus tells Thomas to put his hand into His side (v27). Mary M. possibly wasn’t willing to let Jesus go
20:19-30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • v22. Jesus breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit” – possibly rending some first-fruits of the more copious Pentecostal outpouring noted in Acts 2 • v27. Doubting Thomas was told to check out the facts • v29. Blessed are those who believe w/out all the facts • vv30-31. Jesus possibly performed more than 100,000 healings and miracles over 3 years. John records 7 unique ones, which is plenty to make a sound decision

CONCLUSION/APPLICATIONS

- We must realize God gave us all we needed to know about the Lord’s resurrection for our faith to stand firm, and He provided sufficient wiggle room for those who do not want to believe to continue in their unbelief

NEXT WEEK: John 21. Final miracle and remarks by Jesus leaves a lasting impression on his followers
