INTRODUCTION

- Jesus is arrested and appears before the Sanhedrin, before Pilate, and before Herod, all before His crucifixion
- Jesus had an illegal trial for the following reasons:
  - ♦ Trials were not supposed to be held on feast days (Passover)
  - ♦ Verdicts were to take 2 days for a capital offense (blasphemy)
  - ♦ ...and the accused were allowed to provide a formal defense
- BUT, Jesus had to be tried within 1 day so He could be crucified on Passover, buried on Unleavened Bread, and raised on the Feast of First Fruits – the 1st Sunday following Unleavened Bread
  - ➔ Coincidental? It was all planned before time began!

Passage	Comments
23:1-5	Jesus Faces Pilate <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There is more to Pilate than what Luke records here, but remember Luke's purpose for writing – to give Theophilus sufficient facts for His faith</li> <li>• v3. Jesus would respond to Pilate but not to Herod</li> <li>• Why didn't Jesus say more to Pilate to persuade him to accept Christ as Lord and Savior?                     <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Jesus didn't have time for it</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> There were factors we are not made aware of</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Possibly Jesus did, but we were not told of it</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Jesus knew his heart, and knew he wouldn't do it</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Other considerations?</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
23:6-12	Jesus Faces Herod Antipas <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• v8-9. Herod was very glad to see Jesus and was hoping to see a miracle – BUT Jesus didn't even give him the time of day</li> <li>• Again, we have an over-riding principle. Though we are to give to those who ask things of us, including to give an answer when asked for the hope that lies within us, BUT not if it is "casting pearls before swine"</li> </ul>
23:13-23	Jesus vs Barabbas <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jesus was probably executed in Barabbas' place</li> <li>• Mobs are easily controlled and can get out of control</li> <li>• Nehemiah used a mob ("a large assembly") in a good way to fix a bad situation .....Nehemiah 5:1-12</li> </ul>
Historical Note on Barabbas	The gospels don't say what Barabbas did after he was released, but one tradition says on the day he was released he went to Golgotha and watched Jesus die on the cross. Another source says he was later killed while taking part in another revolt against the Romans
23:26-31	Jesus Carries His Cross with Some Help <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Simon of Cyrene is recruited to carry the cross                     <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>♦ What a blessing we have to carry the crosses we are given in life – to share the burden of our Lord</li> </ul> </li> <li>• v31. "For if they do these things when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?" – in other words, if things are bad now – they will only get worse (possibly alluding to destruction of Jerusalem in 70AD)</li> </ul>

CONCLUSION / APPLICATIONS

- The criminal who dared to ask Jesus to remember him didn't have GREAT faith in the Savior, but he had faith in a GREAT Savior
- And we can take comfort that God has the final end game planned out meticulously as well. Nothing takes God by surprise.

NEXT WEEK: Luke 24:13-35. The resurrected Messiah was incognito alongside 2 of His disciples during a 7 mile walk. What did they talk about for almost 2 hours?

THE THIEF ON THE CROSS NOW IN PARADISE
 Just minutes before his death, the thief on the cross repents and hears Jesus say "Today you will be with me in paradise." Lk 23:39-43
