INTRODUCTIONWhat Troubled Love Looks Like

- Interesting aspects of Song of Songs
 - ♦ Song of Songs was written early in Solomon's life; Proverbs was written during his prime years; & Ecclesiastes was written in his waning years
 - ♦ This book is composed of 7 poems. There are 111 lines from 1:2 to 4:15; and another 111 lines from 5:2 to 8:14. This is by design. The two central verses are the final verse in Chapter 4 (4:16) and the first verse of Chapter 5 – where 2 individuals are merged into one
 - ♦ God may be the speaker in the latter part of 5:1 "Eat, O friends! Drink, yes drink deeply, O beloved ones!" – where He conveys that conjugal love is His concept, and He is at the center of each marriage
- It has been said that the differences between Men & Women is:
 - Women want to be loved, to be cherished, to be desired, to be respected, to be trusted, to be admired, to be heard, and to be held
 - Men want tickets to the World Series (we are not on the same planet)
- These last 4 chapters show that love cannot subsist permanently on hearts and flowers, but Romance must abide throughout the marriage
- For the sake of argument, let's make the following assumptions:
 1. The Shulammitte bride was Solomon's first wife, his first love before he succumbed to doing things his own way
 2. The "60 queens and 80 concubines and other young women without number," listed in 6:8, are a carryover from King David's reign (per David Jeremiah, "What the Bible Says about Love, Marriage, & Sex")
 3. The honeymoon is now over, & the trials of life hit the marriage. The husband works long hours; the wife doesn't see her mate very often.

"Sorry for working late, but I'm here now" • Wife (vv3-8). "Well, it's too late now – go away"; and the persistent but rebuffed husband eventually goes away <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ♦ v7. "They beat me..." – If this is to be taken literally (vice a dream), it conveys the wife has lost the security a protective husband can provide ♦ v8. HELP! The wife seeks help from her friends to help restore the marriage (counseling can be good) • Friends (v9). "He's just a man. Why fix a bad marriage?" (counseling can be bad) • Wife (vv10-12). "Because he is the only one for me, he's my love and he's my friend" (v16) |

Others agree that the wife is special • Wife (vv11-12). Let's kiss and make up • Husband (v13b). "Everyone wants to see the Shulammitte dance her victory dances of love and peace" (Message Bible) - When the Wife is happy, everybody is happy | | | | | | |
| 7:1-13 | Let's Kiss and Make Up <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Husband (vv1-9). This time the husband compliments the wife from the feet to the head. Which means the husband takes frequent notice of his wife's attributes • Wife (vv10-13). The wife recommends a get-away weekend to rekindle their passionate love for each other | | | | | | |

Shulammitte wanted to steal some kisses (as little brothers & sisters could innocently do) • Wife (vv5b-7). A little X-rated episode in v5b. She got sexually aggressive in the same romantic spot where the husband was conceived. That took some planning • Brothers (vv8-9). Her family (brothers) guarded her virginity meticulously. Today, families don't seemed too alarmed about promiscuous sex by their children or siblings • Wife (v10). "I am a wall." IOW, she waited for Mr. Right | | | | | | |

CONCLUSION/APPLICATIONS

- Important concepts to take away from the Song of Solomon:
 - ♦ Marriage is not so much for our happiness as it is for our HOLINESS; Happiness, however, is a pretty nice by-product
 - ♦ The way to a man or woman's heart is through the ears (honest praise); BUT, we all respond in some form or fashion to each of our senses (sight, hearing, smell, touch, and taste)
 - ♦ A wife wants and needs four (4) things from her husband:
 1. TIME
 2. TALK
 3. TENDERNESS and
 4. TOUCH

NEXT WEEK: Ezekiel 1.
Faith under Fire.
