INTRODUCTION

- Apologies for my notes exceeding my typical 1-page format. As Ben Franklin once said, "If I had more time I would've shortened it"
- Also, I deviated away from Life Way's approach. Life Way's outline only covers chapters 8 and 9 for this session, but since I like expository teaching, I opted to cover the main topics in all 14 chapters. To do Zechariah justice and tie in parallel passages from Daniel, Ezekiel, and Revelations would take several months.
- The Book of Zechariah is rich in near-term and far-reaching prophecies, which touch the Messiah's crucifixion and Millennial reign; the Tribulation years, the Battle of Armageddon, and the final destruction of all of Jerusalem's enemies at the end of time
- Unfortunately, we have to fly through this book in 2 sessions
- Zechariah is awesome proof to fulfilled prophecy and the fact that God is still working in Israel today
- Zechariah was a priest and a prophet like Jeremiah and Ezekiel
- Zechariah was a colleague with the prophet Haggai in building of the second temple (aka, Ezra's Temple) ..... cf Ezra 5:1
- Zechariah is quoted from or alluded to by other Bible books more than any other OT book; and he was 2nd to Isaiah for including Christ-centered prophecies
- Zechariah used the term "Lord Almighty" more than 50x in these 14 chapters [literally, "Yahweh of Armies"]
- Zechariah is known for introducing spiritual creatures and objects into his prophetic scenes (i.e., male and female angels, horses, lampstands, olive trees, flying scroll, ephah, etc.)

SUMMARY

Zechariah's prophetic utterances consists of four parts:

1. Introductory, Zec 1:1-6.
2. Symbolical, Zec 1:7, to the end of the sixth chapter, contains nine visions; all these were vouchsafed in one night, and are of a symbolical character.
3. Didactic (instructional), the seventh and eighth chapters containing an answer to a query of the Beth-elites concerning a certain feast. And
4. Prophetic, the ninth chapter to the end. These six last chapters predominantly predict Alexander's expedition along the west coast of Palestine to Egypt; God's protection of the Jews, both at that time and under the Maccabees; the advent, sufferings, and reign of Messiah; the destruction of Jerusalem by Rome, and dissolution of the Jews' polity; their conversion and restoration; the overthrow of the wicked confederacy which assailed them in Canaan; and the Gentiles' joining in their holy worship [JFB Commentary].
- Zechariah has the following visions or prophetic revelations:
  1. The vision of horses, four horns & four carpenters ..... 1:7-21.
  2. Vision of great peace and world-wide evangelism ..... 2:1-13
  3. Vision of encouragement while under duress ..... 3:1-10
  4. Overpowering vision of Jewish success ..... 4:6-9
  5. Vision of a large flying role, an ephah with a woman ..... 5:1-11
  6. Vision of 4 chariots and drawn by strange horses ..... 6:1-15
  7. A challenge for Jews to dispense true justice ..... 7:5-11
  8. The Jews convert many other nations ..... 8:21-23

9. Promise of prosperity..... 9:9
10. Jews to be fully restored to their land ..... 10:6-10
11. But first, the land of Israel will be made desolate ..... 11:4-11
12. God uses Jerusalem to bring judgment on others ..... 12:1-5
13. God begins to remove all forms of evil from the Land ..... 13:2-9
14. Finally, the Messiah, cleaves the Land in 2 as he defeats the world's armies who rise up against Israel, and the Messiah's Millennial Reign begins..... 14:1-21

| Is there Sex in Heaven? | Zechariah 5:9-mentions two flying female angelic-like creatures. If you have sexes in a species, you always have procreation going on. HOWEVER, this is the only passage of its kind, and the context is within a vision. So these female angels could be merely a representation of Judah &amp; Benjamin, or of two Judean kings – Jehoiakim and Zedekiah, or of the Babylonians and Chaldeans, or of Ezra and Nehemiah – depending on one's theological bent Plus, these female creatures had wings 'like the wings of a stork,' which would have helped identify whom they represented to Zechariah and his generation that we can only speculate today There are no parallel passages to dogmatically elaborate on angelic sexes. To speculate beyond what information is provided or not provided in Scripture would lead us down a prickly path Can angels procreate? According to Matthew 22:30 – the answer is NO. Being moral creatures they are not given in marriage, therefore, we can logically deduce they do not procreate between themselves or with other "kinds," and are, therefore, sexless        |

CONCLUSION / APPLICATIONS / BENEFITS

- Though, Zechariah seemed to oscillate between promises of future glory and promises of destruction, the book ends on a positive note that God brings hope to His people through promises of future peace & glory
- We will cover any remaining chapters in Zechariah following 2 studies in Luke that will take us to the Lord's glorious Resurrection and the eternal hope we have here and now

NEXT FEW WEEKS:

1. 5 April – Luke 24:1-12. Preparation for Easter. If the Resurrection of Christ is the cornerstone of our faith why so few details?
2. 12 April – Luke 24:19-35. Jesus opens the eyes of His followers to see Him revealed throughout all of Scripture
3. 19 April – Zechariah conclusion. Pick up where we stopped 3/29
